The quest for better gas mileage

Stefan Rogers (left), Nathan Harpel, David Herron and Zach Lyon are members of Team HMVE Racing.

LINDEN - So just how far can you travel on one gallon of gas?

Most of us would be happy with 25 to 30 miles per gallon. How 206.56 mpg?

A group of students from North Montgomery High School were upset that they could only manage that fuel mileage last week at the annual High Mileage Vehicle Efficiency conducted at O'Reilly Raceway Park.

"It wasn't one of our best efforts," team member Stefan Rogers said. "We had some problems with the clutch and then on our final run we had problems with the gas tank. We were all a little disappointed."

NORTH MONTGOMERY BASEBALL: Visiting Chargers bat around Tigers

LEBANON - Base-running wasn't a problem for North Montgomery's baseball team Tuesday night.

They had their entire offense clicking, especially the hitting part.

Junior Cody Nickle finished with a team-high three hits and recorded two RBI in visiting North Montgomery's 7-1 victory over Sagamore Athletic Conference rival Lebanon.

CHS BASEBALL: CHS wins 11th straight game

DANVILLE - Senior Brett McKinney gave the Class 3A No. 1 Athenians a huge lift on the mound and at the plate Tuesday night.

He kept them safe atop the Sagamore Athletic Conference.

With McKinney's hot bat and clutch relief appearance, visiting Crawfordsville knocked off conference rival Danville 14-6.

night.

Instead, it was the Crawfordsville High School junior's pitching.

French threw a one-hitter and Crawfordsville erupted for 15 hits in an 11-0 five-inning victory at conference foe Danville.
